

Food and Drink Policy (Tarver)

Food and non-alcoholic beverages are allowed in the Jack Tarver Library except in the following areas:

- Special Collections
- Jack Tarver Room
- Any area with a posted “No food or drink” sign

Please be considerate of others, and remember the first and third floors are quiet areas.

Use of covered containers for beverages is appreciated. Pour liquids into restroom sink before recycling or discarding containers.

Place all trash in wastebaskets or recycling bins as appropriate.

Clean up spills, and notify a staff member immediately to minimize damage to facilities or materials. Paper towels are available in all restrooms.

Vending machines are located on the first floor in the 24-hour study area.

Coffee and tea are available for purchase on the second floor near the library entrance.

Food and drinks may not be stored in the library overnight.

Other University Library locations may establish food and drink policies appropriate to their facilities, resources, and patrons. Please check posted policies to ensure compliance.
